Directors' Note

Arthur Miller's classic play, The Crucible, challenges us to confront enduring themes of integrity, moral courage, guilt, redemption, honor, reputation, power, and authority. Through this process, our theatre students have delved deeply into Miller's words, seeking to understand the complexities of human nature and the fear that can divide communities in times of uncertainty.

Theatre invites us to engage with one another in the pursuit of empathy, understanding, and connection. As you experience this story-rooted in historical events yet profoundly relevant today-we invite you to reflect on your own truths and the meanings they hold for you.

About

Ah, the cast list. Oh, the drama. The casting would be simple if it weren't for constant script cuts, actor trade agreements, backstabbing, helicopter parents, hysterical prima donnas, and the Assistant Director could figure out how to incorporate the songs of Grease into Romeo & Juliet without getting sued. This is a show for any student who has ever been cast or miscast in a school play or any teacher who has ever attempted to post a list without serious backlash.

Contains one scene with one word of minor language **

The Cast List is produced by special arrangement
