ADJUDICATORS

MELANIE MATTHEWS

Melanie Matthews (Handy) is a Greensboro native. She obtained her BFA in Acting from NCA&T State University, and worked as an artist in Philadelphia after obtaining her MFA. She currently teaches English at the Great James Benson Dudley High School in Greensboro. She most recently appeared in Blooming in Dry Season with the NC Black Repertory Company.

CASEY STARKEY

Casey Starkey discovered her love for theatre at a young age igniting a passion that inspired her to pursue a Master's degree in Theatre from NYU and a career in theatre education. She most recently served as Theatre Director at Central Academy of Technology and Arts, where she felt privileged to watch her students flourish as directors, designers, and performers. Under her guidance CATA productions earned recognition at NCTC States, SETC, and the Blumey Awards, including Distinguished Plays, Best Musicals, and directing awards. She considers her greatest achievement, however, to be the growth and artistry of her students. Now, while raising her daughter, Casey strives to give back to the theatre community by serving as a judge for NCTC and the Blumey Awards, where she is honored to support and celebrate the next generation of theatre makers.

Adjudication Assistant Jadyn Shook
