ADJUDICATORS

MARC DE LA CONCHA

Marc de la Concha is an actor, director, and educator with extensive professional experience in theatre both nationally and internationally. Originally from NY, he has served as the Director of Education at Cape Fear Regional Theatre for the past seven years, where he has developed and expanded theatre education programs serving students, educators, and emerging theatre professionals throughout the region. His performance credits include national tours of The Drowsy Chaperone, Peter Pan, Discover Theater: Featuring Disney's Cinderella, and Disney's The Jungle Book, as well as a number of regional productions including Little Shop of Horrors, Puffs, The Addams Family, The Odd Couple, Clue, and Shrek. He holds a B.F.A. in Musical Theatre from Fredonia State and is a proud member of Actors' Equity Association.

CASEY STARKEY

Casey Starkey discovered her love for theatre at a young age igniting a passion that inspired her to pursue a Master's degree in Theatre from NYU and a career in theatre education. She most recently served as Theatre Director at Central Academy of Technology and Arts, where she felt privileged to watch her students flourish as directors, designers, and performers. Under her guidance CATA productions earned recognition at NCTC States, SETC, and the Blumey Awards, including Distinguished Plays, Best Musicals, and directing awards. She considers her greatest achievement, however, to be the growth and artistry of her students. Now, while raising her daughters, Casey strives to give back to the theatre community by serving as a judge for NCTC and the Blumey Awards, where she is honored to support and celebrate the next generation of theatre makers.

ABOUT

This theatrical fantasy involves Dwight, an average guy, who wakes up in the middle of the night with a horrible feeling that he's on stage somewhere. He looks out and, sure enough, he is on stage somewhere. At least, that's what he sees. Unfortunately, the rest of the characters see the world as it should be, according to them, anyway. His wife, Blanche, simply wants him to go back to bed or go to work. When he does try to go to work, both his reality and the type of characters he runs into seem to get wilder and wilder until he ends up on a couch and talking to (who else?) Dr. Sigmund Freud.

THE MICRONATION OF ERICA

Content Warning
Contains mentions of domestic violence and loss of a sibling

College sophomore and chemistry student Erin thinks she has mastered her Hyperthymesia, a rare neurological condition in which a person can remember every detail of their life. That is, until unexpected news causes a long-repressed trauma to come flooding back. Unable to stop reliving her past, Erin sets out to manufacture an escape-in the lab. But if she succeeds, could the cure be worse than the disease?

In its highly theatrical world of memories, micronations and chemical reactions, All of You contemplates whether escaping the pain of losing the ones you love is worth losing them entirely.
